

2018 American Aviation Historical Society

Annual Meeting Event Schedule

CHECK IN/register at the AAHS table, Ayres Hotel, after noon, Friday, & Saturday, or also Saturday, at Lyon Air Museum Lobby

1	Fri Feb 16, 2pm	Plan to come early Friday afternoon, and tour Eddie Martin Administration Building , of the John Wayne International Airport, where airport historian Jeff Rountree will provide an AAHS-only overview of the many historic events at John Wayne International Airport and a behind-the scenes view of the airport apron, underneath the control tower	3160 Airway Ave. Costa Mesa
2	5pm	AAHS Hosts a wine and appetizer social , at the 'Living Room' in the Ayres Hotel, Costa Mesa . Enjoy fine wines and friends, with good food. Catch up with other AAHS members, book authors and enthusiasts!	325 Bristol Street, Costa Mesa
	7 pm	Presentation by author Ken Pauley, of the 1910 Los Angeles Air Meet , Dominguez Hills, the first such event ever held in the United States
3	Sat Feb 17 830am	AAHS attendees meet up at the Lyon Air Museum , for a before-hours docent-based tour of this spotless museum, housing both aircraft and unusual vehicles. Will also walk through the Martin Aviation Building. Get your coffee before you arrive!- No food in the museum!	19300 Ike Jones Road, Santa Ana
4	12:00	Back at Ayres Hotel , you can browse through the boxes of aviation books AAHS will have for sale. Then our program gets into full swing in the Camberley Meeting Room at noon, where lunch will be served, and a presentation of Eddie Martin and early aviation in Orange County, given by Captain Nicholas Kanakis , West Point graduate in Military History, UH 64 combat pilot, and currently teaching Military History at Claremont McKenna College	325 Bristol Street, Costa Mesa
5	2:30pm	AAHS Overview & Raffle - We'll brief everyone on exciting new developments at AAHS & provide 2017 recognitions
	3:30pm	AAHS Photo Cataloging w Hayden Hamilton
	5:00 pm	AAHS Open Board Meeting – Ayres Restaurant area
	6:00 pm	Dinner Gathering– 3 Thirty 3 Waterfront -Relax by the water, off the same road Glenn Martin tested his first Hydroplane and enjoy the view of the bay (No host)	333 Bayside Drive,

			Newport Beach
6	Sun Feb 18 9:00am	Tour of Heroes Hall  – in the Old Santa Ana Air Base barracks, part of the original WWII Santa Ana Air Base, the largest preflight training base in the US during WWII. Facilities reside at Orange County Fairgrounds , where you can also visit the world famous Orange County Swap Meet, held at the same time! (separate entrance fee)	88 Fair Drive, Costa Mesa
		 This replaces our GOODYEAR HANGAR Facility Tour. Goodyear hangar construction has been DELAYED and not yet ready for AAHS access.
7	Noon  JUST ADDED!	Tour- Fullerton Airport Tower ! - Fullerton Municipal Airport, operating since 1929, the only other surviving airport of Orange County. Have lunch at their WINGS diner and visit Tower Operations and get an insider look	Fullerton Airport, Fullerton